Introduction

When most people think of Chinese Astrology, they immediately think of themselves in the context of being a ‘fierce’ Tiger or a ‘loyal’ Dog or a ‘sneaky and sly’ Snake. If you, like most people, have been reading up on your own ‘Chinese Astrology’ in this form, you would have by now come to realize that these simplified descriptions of your Chinese Astrology are really no more than a summary of the individual animal characteristics – and not an accurate description of your personal character or Destiny.

Any professional BaZi Chinese Astrology practitioner will tell you that it’s not very precise to read your chart by looking at only one of the Earthly Branches (your Animal Sign) in your BaZi. As there are eight characters in any BaZi Chart, the Earthly Branch of the Year Pillar constitutes only one of the eight characters. By relying solely on this Earthly Branch of your BaZi’s Year Pillar for your reading, you’re basing your Destiny (and the decisions you make) on information that is only 12.5% accurate!

In order to provide you with a more precise forecast for the year ahead, we make use of your Personal Day Pillar Jia Zi (甲子). This allows us a greater level of accuracy and more depth in the information we can glean from your BaZi Chart.

As I have mentioned in my forecasts and outlook for 2011, the year ahead will be filled with exciting ups and downs. This presents many of us with opportunities to grow, not just financially but also on a personal level. I have always said that there are no absolutes in Chinese Metaphysics – take a positive view of the circumstances and you derive a positive outcome. Take a negative view and it will naturally become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

You should read your Annual Day Pillar Forecast much like you would a road map. It provides you an insight into what potential the year of the Metal Rabbit holds, a snapshot of your Destiny on a month-by-month basis. It’s not enough to simply read and understand your Destiny, I highly recommend you make an effort, take the necessary ACTIONS to capitalise on any opportunities that may be coming up or address certain areas of your life. Destiny is not carved in stone and my experience is that the outcome can be greatly tilted in your favour if you are willing to plan ahead and persevere.

Ultimately, it’s good to bear in mind that this BaZi Day Pillar Forecast constitutes only one of the four pillars in your BaZi chart. The only way to obtain a really specific idea of what the Year of the Metal Rabbit holds for you (or a more expansive reading covering a longer time frame of 10, 20 years or longer) is to have a professional astrology consultation with a BaZi practitioner. We highly recommend a comprehensive BaZi reading and would be happy to arrange this for you. Please do book your session via our website (www.joeyyap.com) or get in touch with us at our office.

Forecast For 2011 Based on your Day of Birth

Overview

Aggression is the name of the game for you this year, and you’ll have to be a go-getter to get the results you want! Going after what you want will turn out for the best – especially if this involves matters of wealth! If you work hard and put in the required effort, this will be a favourable year for you. Don’t stick to the tried and tested. It’s in with the new, and out with the stale and staid! While this might seem intimidating at first, you will be surprised at how natural it will feel once you actually allow it to happen.

If you’re not willing to pull yourself up by your bootstraps, you might end up with nothing to show at the end of it. You don’t want to get to the end of the year and realise you’ve made no progress the whole year. This year, you’ll need to give yourself permission to play! Be more creative and allow your ingenuity to reign, and things will start to look up.

This will not be as difficult to pull off as you imagine, because you’ll be flooded with new ideas and inspirations throughout the year. You’ll be able to surprise yourself with fresh and bold plans and actions, that which will lead to greater personal and professional fulfillment if you’re not afraid to explore where it will take you.
Wealth

Generally, this year is not too outstanding for wealth. However, perseverance is needed, as whatever you begin now is likely to bring good returns in the future. It would be a mistake to completely disregard your financial goals. Lay the groundwork for future success now, and you won’t regret it. While you may not see the rewards or the actual benefits this year, being able to plan and strategise for further wealth opportunities will be a good thing to do this year.

Strong competition is also a key factor in your wealth outlook for the year. Those of you who travel regularly for work purposes will fare somewhat better this year. Avoid falling into a sluggish routine or pattern, as otherwise you’ll find yourself stuck in one place where money is concerned. You may be turning over the same wheels over and over again, and this will not bode well for you in the long run. The idea is to make some worthy changes now that will pay off for the long-term. Doing something different will strengthen your wealth this year, so don’t be afraid of changes.

Be alert to the possibility of financial loss if you don’t play your cards right. Therefore, strive to adopt the right approach. If investments are a must for you this year, don’t enter into anything rashly. Do your best to save up for future investments, as the outcome will be better. If you must spend, do it wisely – invest in something, be it short-term or long-term, so that at least you get to see results in the future for the money that is being spent now.

Forecast For 2011 Based on your Day of Birth

Relationships

The outlook for romance this year is not easy or smooth, but on the flipside, there could be just about enough spice to perk things up and keep things exciting! Just be prepared for a non-easy ride, and don’t expect romantic opportunities to drop into your lap out of the blue! Just like your outlook for wealth, your forecast for romance is also due for some shaking-up. No more sticking to the same old, same old.

That said, you need to gear up for a fight, as you may face quite a bit of strong competition this year. Therefore, you may need to step up your ‘game’ a little and think of new ways to do this. The word ‘game’ may bring up unpleasant connotations within the realm of romance, but it doesn’t have to be so. Not all games have to be devious and/or tricky. It’s up to you to call the shots, and you can play it nice and charming, too, with just a little bit of an edge to keep things exciting and fresh.

Those of you who are already in relationships will endure the likelihood of a misunderstanding involving a third party, or a possible newcomer to the scene. It will be best to steer clear of any form of temptation, and maintain a sense of discipline. But don’t give in to wild and erratic speculations and suspicion, either, as this can damage your relationship. But for most of you in steady relationships, especially males, this will also be a good year to get married.
Health

You may find yourself particularly susceptible to stomach ailments – including food poisoning and indigestion – this year, so watch what and where you eat. A complete overhaul of your dietary habits and intake may be required, but do consult a dietician or trained professional, before taking this course of action. Of course, you need not be told twice to consult your physician, at the first sign of trouble.

Since prevention is better than cure, though, could it be possible that stress and mental pressure may be the culprits behind your stomach-related woes? Stress is usually the predominant factor behind symptoms such as headaches and migraines, so pause, take stock of your situation and see if something needs to be done about your current lifestyle! Above all, do remember: What is life, if, full of care, we’ve no time to stand and stare?

Prioritize your health, and you’ll not be sorry for doing so. There’s so much more to life than work, work and work – so stop and smell the roses every now and then; metaphorically speaking, of course. You need to work just as much – if not more – on your health as at your job this year, if you’re to live life to the fullest in 2011. With this, you’re hereby forewarned!
Career

You should be pleased to know that your career outlook for the year is a fairly promising one. But just how promising it may be – or otherwise – depends entirely on you!

So, in order to make the most of what 2011 has to offer you, start with some careful planning. Know what you want and how to go about getting it; and half the battle’s as good as won. The rest, of course, would then depend on how you actually put your plans into motion.

Don’t hesitate to reach out to – or approach – your coworkers, superiors or even friends for help or advice, if need be. This is indeed a particularly beneficial year to work or collaborate with others, so if you’ve been eyeing that partnership or joint-venture for a while now, what’s stopping you from approaching the other party and setting it up? And even if you’re a salaried employee, you can surely continue cultivating and fostering strong working ties with those around you at the workplace, right?

In fact, do so, and that long-awaited promotion or pay hike may finally be yours, before the year is up! You may, however, need to prepare or brace yourself for certain changes at the workplace. But then again, it is only by accepting, embracing and adapting ourselves to changing circumstances that we, as human beings, survive and thrive.

So, instead of resting on your laurels or record of previous successes, remain proactive in doing what it takes to achieve your goals, this year. Remember; fortune favors the bold, but victory belongs to the most persevering!

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

1st month 庚寅 (February 4 – March 5)

Your wealth outlook for the month is a fairly promising one, so make hay while the sun shines. As long as you’re willing to go the extra mile – and put in that extra bit of effort into your endeavors – you should find this a rewarding and memorable month! So, roll up your sleeves and get ready to be as hands-on as possible, for you only stand to gain by adopting such a stance.

Nevertheless, all work and no play make Jack a dull boy – or Jill a dull girl. So if the many rigors and demands of life are beginning to get to you, do take some time away from work to rest and even pamper yourself. Moderation’s usually the key to success, so learn to strike a balance between work and play – and the world shall be your oyster this month.

2nd month 辛卯 (March 6 – April 4)

You may be feeling slightly more confused – even frustrated – than usual, this month. But this is no excuse to let off steam and let rip at innocent parties, of course. Instead, see if you can sit down – by yourself or with another party – and lucidly determine what’s getting to you. It does take a lot of self-discipline and restraint to do this, so if you’re capable of doing so, give yourself some credit for taking the first step towards understanding the source of your woes.

Do not be tempted to stray or take any short-cuts, either, especially if you happen to be born in a winter month. It simply doesn’t pay to run afoul of the law – or any rules or regulations – this month, so don’t! After all, why end up paying the price for your own indiscretion or moments of madness, if only to allow yourself a moment’s pleasure?

3rd month 壬辰 (April 5 – May 5)

If you’re married, there’s a possibility that certain changes may impact upon your relationship with your spouse, this month. Then again, since change is probably the only constant in life, learn to deal with – rather than oppose – it, and you’ll fare a great deal better.

There is, however, the need to be mindful of your words and actions. Discretion’s the better part of valor, so if you’ve nothing kinder or better to say, you’d be better off holding your peace. There’s a tendency to offend others – albeit unwittingly – with your words this month, so now that you’ve been duly forewarned, see how you can work yourself through any issue, with diplomacy and tact.
4th month 癸巳 (May 6 – June 5)

It literally pays to be mindful of your expenditure and spending this month, more so if you find your social life getting a sudden jumpstart! All those nights of entertaining and entertainment may finally take their toll on your wallet, so no matter how much you may be enjoying yourself, you still need to be prudent.

Now, no matter how brilliant or sellable your ideas may be, you may still find it somewhat difficult to convince your boss. Don’t give up – see if there’s an unexplored angle from which you may influence your boss as to your way of thinking. If you’re capable of doing so successfully, you may even earn his or her respect and admiration – which could only augur well for your career and future!

5th month 甲午 (June 6 – July 6)

Feeling more disconcerted or troubled than usual? Or perhaps, there’s something of a proverbial thorn in your flesh, which has yet to be removed? Whatever it may be, seek help at once, in order to prevent matters from getting worse, or out of hand.

Look on the bright side of things, though. Wealth luck is on your side this month, so do what it takes – just as long as you continue to make hay while the sun shines. Be forewarned of the possibility of some stiff competition at the workplace, however. Then again, you ought to know that in order to avoid the pitfalls of such competition – including stress – all you need to do is stay ahead of the game, and keep your priorities straight.

6th month 乙未 (July 7 – August 7)

Wealth luck is on your side this month – so need you be told twice to do what you’ve to do, in order to make your money work for you? Stay sharp, and you should be able to capitalize upon any viable opportunities that pass you way.

In any case, you still need to be extra mindful of your personal belongings and documents this month – especially if you find yourself traveling or moving about a lot. Then again, who else can you reasonably expect to take care of your own stuff, if not your own self?

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

7th month 丙申 (August 8 – September 7)

Your hard work over the recent few months are beginning to bear fruit now, so it’d be safe to say that that long-anticipated promotion or pay hike may finally be yours, before the month is up! In any case, do remain mindful of potential backstabbers or those who seek to steal your thunder – for success does tend to breed envy, too.

It would be wise, however, not to allow work-related issues to affect your personal relationships, this month. Set your priorities straight, and learn to deal with the stress and pressure of your workload, so as not to bring it home with you every day! Moderation’s the key to success, so sprinkle a generous dosage of the former into your life this month – and always.

8th month 丁酉 (September 8 – October 7)

Thinking and cogitating will only get you so far. You need to put your thoughts – and plans – into motion, before the corresponding results start to materialize. Indeed, should you find yourself thinking too much about the “What ifs” this month, then you’ve probably reached a point of stagnation.

So, plan carefully and note down all the steps you need to take in order to get something done. If, for some reason or other, you find yourself constantly ruminating and not doing anything about it, talk to someone trustworthy. He or she might just be able to give you the necessary jolt to get you started!

9th month 戊戌 (October 8 – November 7)

If you’re a business owner or entrepreneur, you’ll be pleased to know that new opportunities will present themselves to you, this month. You should hence remain sharp, in order to recognize and capitalize upon them accordingly. Ultimately, fortune favors the bold, while victory belongs to the most persevering.

Make no mistake; some competition lies in wait for you, too. And if you’re a salaried employee, you may be somewhat frustrated to find your boss taking your coworkers’ side over yours. In any case, always strive to work harmoniously with others; instead of against them. To do so, however, your sense of tact must remain intact.
10th month 己亥 (November 8 – December 6)

Take every comment, suggestion or so-called friendly advice with a pinch of salt this month. No matter how well people may mean, you and you alone are the best judge of what to – and not to – do, especially where your personal relationships are concerned.

So, have faith and confidence in yourself. Nobody’s perfect and it’s only human to err – so do what you’ve to do, and let the outcomes take care of themselves!

11th month 庚子 (December 7, 2011 – January 5, 2012)

Your sense of integrity may be tested this month, especially if someone chooses to divulge certain information meant for your ears only. If your mouth is the type that tends to give you away at times, then do double-check yourself, before saying or uttering anything that might betray the trust and confidence another party has accorded you!

Having said that, you might be at the receiving end of some useful information from someone in authority, which, wielded carefully, will go a long way towards allowing you to achieve your goals. Knowledge, after all, is power – as long as you’re able to remain discreet and rational.

12th month 辛丑 (January 6, 2012 – February 3, 2012)

You need to be extra conscious of your health this month; especially if you aren’t really a health aficionado. There is the possibility of suffering from a food-related problem, including an allergy or even poisoning, so watch what and where you eat. And of course, do consult a doctor at once, at the first sign of trouble.

Work-wise, you aren’t short of or lacking creativity, this month! So, go ahead and make the most of what your inspiration provides you with, while it still flows. Just be sure to map out any brainwaves you have, so that you may start working on developing and implementing them, later on. Indeed, your ideas are merely plans waiting to be orchestrated and executed, this month.
