Introduction

When most people think of Chinese Astrology, they immediately think of themselves in the context of being a 'fierce' Tiger or a 'loyal' Dog or a 'sneaky and sly' Snake. If you, like most people, have been reading up on your own 'Chinese Astrology' in this form, you would have by now come to realize that these simplified descriptions of your Chinese Astrology are really no more than a summary of the individual animal characteristics – and not an accurate description of your personal character or Destiny.

Any professional BaZi Chinese Astrology practitioner will tell you that it's not very precise to read your chart by looking at only one of the Earthly Branches (your Animal Sign) in your BaZi. As there are eight characters in any BaZi Chart, the Earthly Branch of the Year Pillar constitutes only one of the eight characters. By relying solely on this Earthly Branch of your BaZi's Year Pillar for your reading, you're basing your Destiny (and the decisions you make) on information that is only 12.5% accurate!

In order to provide you with a more precise forecast for the year ahead, we make use of your Personal Day Pillar Jia Zi (甲子). This allows us a greater level of accuracy and more depth in the information we can glean from your BaZi Chart.

As I have mentioned in my forecasts and outlook for 2013, the year ahead will be filled with exciting ups and downs. This presents many of us with opportunities to grow, not just financially but also on a personal level. I have always said that there are no absolutes in Chinese Metaphysics – take a positive view of the circumstances and you derive a positive outcome. Take a negative view and it will naturally become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

You should read your Annual Day Pillar Forecast much like you would a road map. It provides you an insight into what potential the year of the Water Snake holds, a snapshot of your Destiny on a month-by-month basis. It's not enough to simply read and understand your Destiny, I highly recommend you make an effort, take the necessary ACTIONS to capitalise on any opportunities that may be coming up or address certain areas of your life. Destiny is not carved in stone and my experience is that the outcome can be greatly tilted in your favour if you are willing to plan ahead and persevere.

Ultimately, it's good to bear in mind that this BaZi Day Pillar Forecast constitutes only one of the four pillars in your BaZi chart. The only way to obtain a really specific idea of what the Year of the Water Snake holds for you (or a more expansive reading covering a longer time frame of 10, 20 years or longer) is to have a professional astrology consultation with a BaZi practitioner. We highly recommend a comprehensive BaZi reading and would be happy to arrange this for you. Forecast For 2013 Based on your Day of Birth

Xin Hai 辛亥 Day Master

Overview

This is a year of changes, but you are likely to find them more than overdue. As such, it might be a good idea to take a deep breath and get strapped in for the ride! There is a good chance that things will improve for the better, provided that you are ready and willing to adapt to these changes. And the more flexible and adaptive you are, the more you'll find yourself enjoying what the year ahead has to offer you.

Acquisition of new knowledge and skills will prove to be to your advantage, both in terms of the short-term effects and also in terms of the long-term. It will be wise that you must reexamine your staid approaches thus far, as they may have run out of steam. It's necessary for all humans to have some room left for improvement, so here's your cue to forge ahead with plans to make some real progress in your life.

Legal issues may arise, however, and you will need to keep a lid on them.. You will have to carefully peruse the fine print and avoid signing your name to things that strike you as being ambiguous. Get it cleared up. And you need not be told twice, of course, to always seek to err on the side of caution; no matter what you do or where you go. In any case, should push come to shove, do consult a legal professional at once to gain a clarification.

Forecast For 2013 Based on your Day of Birth

Wealth

A significant amount of changes await in terms of your financial situation, too, but whether it will be good or bad depends quite a bit on you. But you should take comfort to know that you have an opportunity to multiply and diversify your sources of wealth. You must be brave enough to enforce some changes with some creativity and boldness.

As such, 2013 will be your year to shake things up and get things going. You must be prepared to take some risks in order to see some profits. As long as you aren't afraid of change, there's really no reason why this can't be a rewarding year for you!

You may be compelled to dig into your savings in order to lay the groundwork for future success, today. But instead of regarding this as an expense, why not consider it as a form of investment in yourself and your future? Research all options available at your disposal, and select the one that holds the promise of maximum value-for-money, in accordance with your financial means. This obviously entails you planning your expenditure carefully. Draw up a budget and be careful with your spending throughout the year.

Relationships

Where relationships are concerned this year, men are likely to fare better than the women. If you're a single man, there will be greater opportunities to meet potential romantic prospects and establish a new connection. If you're a man in a long-term relationship, there will be a chance to perhaps take the relationship to a new level, and there will be the likelihood of wedding bells ringing.

Women might see a particular relationship come to an end. And while this will come with the attendant pain and sadness, bear in mind also that it will likely turn out to be the best for you in the long run – perhaps this relationship was burdening you or dragging you down all along?

Therefore, women will do well to approach the year with cautious hope. Bear in mind that endings are also beginnings of a new sort. See what the year has in store for you in other aspects of your life. Don't ruminate too much about water under the bridge, or hang on to old grievances and hurts. This will end up hurting you more than anything else, and prevent the opportunity for renewal and re-growth.

Forecast For 2013 Based on your Day of Birth

Health

You have good health outlook this year, and this is bound to provide you with some relief that you'll have one less thing to worry about! Do keep in mind, however, that much will ultimately depend on how you go about managing your lifestyle, and the amount of attention you channel towards maintaining your health.

Watch out for the risk of blood-related issues or illnesses that could lead to allergies. Food allergies may also crop up, but it may be hard to pinpoint the source since the symptoms and ailments will often manifest in different ways. Therefore, if something's amiss – and you develop symptoms that are unusual or new – talk to your doctor about getting a blood test to evaluate potential allergies.

A lack of energy throughout the year may contribute to a sense of lethargy. Therefore, slow down your hectic lifestyle if you need to. But of greater importance is the need for you to listen to what your body is trying to tell you – and take the necessary steps to remedy any factors that may otherwise lead to poor health. Strive to incorporate useful habits into your daily health regimen to ensure that you're always feeling top-notch. Improve your diet and nutrition; a healthy body will beget a healthy, alert mind.

Career

You are likely to see some changes to your professional outlook this year, so you might as well make the most of it. It will be to your advantage to use your talents and abilities to best effect and strive to present yourself at your finest. If you've long thought about taking that leap, this is the year to stop merely thinking about it, and to actually make your move and do it!

It's a good year to put to action those ideas and thoughts that have been brewing in your mind for some time. Otherwise, you risk missing the boat completely. Therefore, prevent procrastination from taking over your life this year. Remember; if you continue waiting for the 'perfect' moment to act or strike, you'll never, ever get anything done.

Be careful with your words and behaviour at the workplace this month. Avoid clashing with your bosses or superiors; instead, if you have a disagreeing viewpoint or opinion, articulately persuade them of your perspective. Don't freely or recklessly lash out as a result of strong emotions, because you will only isolate yourself and alienate your peers! Finding ways to cohesively work with them will benefit you tremendously this year.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

1st month 甲寅 (February 4 – March 4)

The year begins with somewhat weak wealth luck, so it will be best to avoid dwelling over unimportant decisions. Simply focus on what needs to be done, and uncover opportunities that could lead to a potential secondary source of income. Plan ahead and reconsider all options at your disposal, whilst biding your time to act at the next opportune moment.

Pay adequate attention to your relationships this month, too. Remind yourself that there is more to life than just work and money, so see what else makes you happy, and pursue it accordingly! It's equally, if not more, important to find a sense of purpose and self-fulfillment that stems from something other than the pursuit of material wealth and comfort.

2nd month 乙卯 (March 5 – April 3)

The month is rife with professional competition, so you'll have to be sharp at the workplace. If you're the shrewd, capable type – you should be aware that you need to beat others at their own game. Know your enemy or opponents well, and where possible, work with them to be able to beat them at their own game!

A tumultuous month awaits those in a relationship or a marriage. Ties will be strained, and you will have to work harder than usual to maintain the peace that could easily shatter. Health-wise, women will have a risk of gynecological problems and will need to keep an eye out for any problems.

3rd month 丙辰 (April 4 – May 4)

Your biggest enemy this month is likely to be procrastination, so find ways to stay engaged and busy. There is always plenty of work to do, and this month perhaps gives you the opportunity to catch up on all work that's not urgent, thereby paving the way for some relaxing moments later on in the year.

You may also be prone to behaving quite aggressively this month, both in speech and in actions. Remain mindful of your emotions, more so feelings of irritation and annoyance, and learn to distance yourself if need be. It would be wise to keep a low profile and focus on consolidating your position. Avoid giving in to emotional reactions.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

4th month 丁巳 (May 5 – June 4)

You have good wealth stars this month, but you still need to be mindful of your spending, and curb the urge to embark on unnecessary shopping sprees. You will have to be sure that money doesn't leak out in small but significant ways through unplanned purchases and spontaneous buys!

It's a crucial month in terms of time management, otherwise you run the risk of burning out. Strike a balance between your professional obligations and your private life, and don't compromise on the quality of your personal, non-work pursuits. Remember to spend time on your passions and hobbies, as well.

5th month 戊午 (June 5 – July 6)

It's a good month to stop for awhile, sit down, and reevaluate your life goals and priorities. Otherwise, you risk running yourself ragged with your non-stop focus on professional and financial obligations. Stop for a moment and consider how much of energy and time you've put into your personal relations, for example, and adjust accordingly.

This is, in fact, a good month to pamper or indulge yourself; more so if you've been working very hard lately and deserve a break. There's a tendency to feel somewhat pressured or stressed out from your recent wealth-related pursuits, so learn to kick back, and take it easy for once! At the end of the day, you would be wise to ask yourself: What am I working so hard for? It's no use if you lose sense of the bigger picture!

6th month 己未 (July 7 – August 6)

If you're a man in a steady relationship, you might consider popping the question this month as your thoughts turn toward marriage and long-term commitment. If this is something you've thought about and discussed at length, then the stars are auspicious for just such a momentous life-change!

In general, your romantic outlook for the month is quite good if you're a man, as things are likely to progress smoothly. Nevertheless, you need to be brave enough to venture beyond your shell, in order to meet as many new faces as possible. Don't be so quick to discard or discount any help offered by well-meaning relatives or friends, either, for you just never know how you'll meet your fair princess!

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

7th month 戊申 (August 7 – September 6)

Your sense of self will enjoy a boost this month, what with your superiors and bosses giving you positive feedback. Therefore, make sure you make full use of this time to let them really just what you're capable of! Set only realistic targets for yourself so as not to end up succumbing to stress and falling prey to the failures brought on by unrealistic expectations.

But remember that it's important for you to remain humble and focused. Remember; pride always comes before a fall, so check yourself every now and then, and keep a low profile at all times. Don't get too caught up in a circle of compliments and recognition and forget that you still have to work hard; resting on your laurels is for when you're retired!

8th month 辛酉 (September 7 – October 7)

You have good career luck through this month. As long as you keep up the good work, there's even the possibility of being rewarded with a promotion or a pay raise! But no matter how promising things may look on the career front, guard against overindulging yourself – or splurging on unnecessary luxuries, for that matter.

If you're a mother, you'll have a hard time dealing with your children as they become more rambunctious than usual this month. You'll have to keep a tight rein on your temper, however, as they're merely testing their boundaries and doing what kids do – so allow some leeway, and surprise them by joining in on the fun! Perhaps all they really wanted was the permission to play and become rowdy.

9th month 壬戌 (October 8 – November 6)

If you've been working hard at your job, this is the month where you get to see more rewards. Your luck is strong enough this month that you can afford to slacken a little bit by giving yourself some amount of well-earned rest.

You will have slightly less luck on the domestic front, however, as interpersonal relationships are strained. Your loved ones seem bent on causing you the occasional headache, so you will have to respond accordingly. Being reactionary may be exhausting in the long run, so perhaps it will be wiser to pick and choose your battles?

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

10th month 癸亥 (November 7 – December 6)

It's a good month to pack your bags and get going! Travel will bode well for you this month, although there will be minor health issues to contend with like allergies and stomach flu. So stick to the tried-and-tested where food is concerned – more so if you find yourself moving about this month – so as not to be taken ill unexpectedly.

This is also a favourable and auspicious month to focus on your spiritual development and religious pursuits, particularly if you've long been keen to explore different beliefs.

11th month 甲子 (December 7, 2013 – January 4, 2014)

Your wealth luck proves to be difficult this month, and if you're not careful all that over-spending will lead to some significant problems. A budget will prove useful in times like this, because it's hard to know how costly it is to stray from your proposed spending until you see it in black and white! This month is about learning to differentiate your needs from your wants.

Where your health is concerned, take it easy on the alcohol consumption. While it's only natural to drink and make merry as we head towards the end of the year, moderation is always the key to health and a well-balanced life.

12th month 乙丑 (January 5, 2014 – February 3, 2014)

Good ideas come your way via other people, particularly your colleagues and coworkers. Be open-minded and listen to what they have in mind. Don't allow your insecurity or sense of pride resist other people's ideas even before you have a chance to hear them out; this will only make you rigid and stubborn in the long run.

If you work in the creative line or in a creative job, this will be a productive time period as your sense of imagination is at an all-time high. If you're in the performing arts and entertainment you will do well this month.
