Introduction

When most people think of Chinese Astrology, they immediately think of themselves in the context of being a 'fierce' Tiger or a 'loyal' Dog or a 'sneaky and sly' Snake. If you, like most people, have been reading up on your own 'Chinese Astrology' in this form, you would have by now come to realize that these simplified descriptions of your Chinese Astrology are really no more than a summary of the individual animal characteristics – and not an accurate description of your personal character or Destiny.

Any professional BaZi Chinese Astrology practitioner will tell you that it's not very precise to read your chart by looking at only one of the Earthly Branches (your Animal Sign) in your BaZi. As there are eight characters in any BaZi Chart, the Earthly Branch of the Year Pillar constitutes only one of the eight characters. By relying solely on this Earthly Branch of your BaZi's Year Pillar for your reading, you're basing your Destiny (and the decisions you make) on information that is only 12.5% accurate!

In order to provide you with a more precise forecast for the year ahead, we make use of your Personal Day Pillar Jia Zi (甲子). This allows us a greater level of accuracy and more depth in the information we can glean from your BaZi Chart.

As I have mentioned in my forecasts and outlook for 2014, the year ahead will be filled with exciting ups and downs. This presents many of us with opportunities to grow, not just financially but also on a personal level. I have always said that there are no absolutes in Chinese Metaphysics – take a positive view of the circumstances and you derive a positive outcome. Take a negative view and it will naturally become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

You should read your Annual Day Pillar Forecast much like you would a road map. It provides you an insight into what potential the year of the Wood Horse holds, a snapshot of your Destiny on a month-by-month basis. It's not enough to simply read and understand your Destiny, I highly recommend you make an effort, take the necessary ACTIONS to capitalise on any opportunities that may be coming up or address certain areas of your life. Destiny is not carved in stone and my experience is that the outcome can be greatly tilted in your favour if you are willing to plan ahead and persevere.

Ultimately, it's good to bear in mind that this BaZi Day Pillar Forecast constitutes only one of the four pillars in your BaZi chart. The only way to obtain a really specific idea of what the Year of the Wood Horse holds for you (or a more expansive reading covering a longer time frame of 10, 20 years or longer) is to have a professional astrology consultation with a BaZi practitioner. We highly recommend a comprehensive BaZi reading and would be happy to arrange this for you. Please do book your session via our website (www.joeyyap.com) or get in touch with us at our office at +603-2284 1213.

Forecast For 2014 Based on your Day of Birth

Ji You 己酉 Day Master

Overview

Focus on your ambitions this year, and you'll have plenty to look forward to. You can make an impact if you can concentrate on your goals. If you've long been thinking about changing aspects of your life, this is the year to give it your best and sincere shot. The stars are favourable for big changes and new beginnings, so avoid carrying on with your usual routines and aim to go forward with spirit and creativity.

But the key factor is to remain active and engaged with all aspects of your life. Travel will be good for you this year, whether you're doing it for work or for pleasure. It will broaden your mind, reenergize your views and perspectives, and present you with new horizons and opportunities to grow, both as a professional and person.

In any case, don't be afraid of trying out new things or taking on new challenges this year. As long as you remain focused on your goals and objectives, there's really no reason why you can't reach for the sky, in your pursuit of success and excellence. When your luck outlook is favourable, there's really no reason to hold back from attempting to fulfill your dreams.

Forecast For 2014 Based on your Day of Birth

Wealth

Your wealth luck is strong in 2014, so that's certainly some welcome news! You may have to rethink your old ways, however, in order to make the best of it. But as with any sort of overhaul, you need to first assess where your methods have gotten you and how far you've become before trying to find ways to incorporate some improvements.

Consider your financial goals and aims, both for the short-term and the long-term, and implement some changes accordingly. It would definitely be more than possible to diversify or multiply your income by traveling this year, so grab any chance to do so. As long as you remain proactive in seizing the initiative, all that's left to do is work hard – and work smart – in your pursuit of wealth.

Don't wait for opportunities to come to you this year. Instead, be proactive in seeking out opportunities, and make the most of even tiny pockets of possibility that might crop up here and there. If you need the advice of financial consultants or advisors, then look for it. Some ideas on how to plan for all concerns—medical, long-term, children's education, and retirement—can help you figure out where you stand.

Relationships

This is a good year for romance for single women, so there might be unexpected pleasures to look forward to in 2014! Be audacious enough to venture out of your comfort zone and strike up conversations with others, even people with whom you don't normally fraternize or hang out. So long as you're willing to put in the requisite effort in your pursuit of love and romance, the outcome is likely to be positive.

Unfortunately, this favourable romance luck doesn't really extend to those who are attached. People who are married will have to break the shackles of routine in order to feel inspired and enthusiastic again. Boredom and ennui can also lead to one or both partners looking for excitement or fulfillment outside of the marriage. Be sensitive to the thoughts, feelings, and needs of your spouse.

The same holds true even if you're in a long-term, committed relationship. Therefore, the rule of love this year for people who are attached is to keep things exciting and new, and not to fall into a rut. Even small efforts made throughout the year, consistently, can work wonders in terms of reenergizing your relationship – it doesn't necessarily mean that you have to make big, grand, overwhelming gestures in order to keep the sparks of romance alive.

Forecast For 2014 Based on your Day of Birth

Health

Take care of your health this year or you might easily feel unwell and run down. You may have to slow down a little at points throughout the year to prevent burn out. This year, you need to cut back on the incessant worrying and fretting over everything and everyone in order to take care of yourself and make your health a priority.

There's the possibility of being plagued by frequent bouts of headaches and even migraines this year. Prevention will be much better than the cure, so if you suffer from migraine or frequent headaches to the point where it interferes with the quality of your life, it will be high time to seek more effective treatment from your doctor.

Be careful of head injuries as well. Accidents or mishaps could lead to some serious problems, so it will be best to be on your guard. If you're the active sort who participates in a lot of sports (including extreme sports like mountain-climbing, wall-scaling, white water rafting, and related activities), you will do well to take extra precautions and obey all safety rules, as well as don all necessary protective gear.

Career

Your career will ascend to new heights in 2014, so be ready to do the work as necessary! A lot matters on you being able to balance both home and professional lives, though, otherwise you'll find your job or career taking over your life to the detriment of your health and your personal wellbeing. Be sure to chart a balanced progression through your career that doesn't sacrifice other important elements of your life.

Extra travel will bode well on the professional front as it will help you discover new avenues and also work as an inspiration and motivation of sorts. So, if it's a promotion, pay hike or some other form of career advancement that you seek, you need to be able to take the reins and take that all-important first step towards achieving your dreams.

Don't be too timid or uncertain about trying something different, be it a new style of work or undertaking a project that's outside of the sphere of your usual expertise. The usual routine is not conducive to you making relevant changes in your life. Have more confidence in yourself to rise to the occasion and you might find yourself experiencing new paths of learning and growth this year.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

1st month (February 4th - March 5th) 丙寅

This is an excellent month with which to start the year, as your talents and capabilities lead to more wealth opportunities. It will be imperative, therefore, step out from under the shadows and into the limelight. Be your own self-booster because otherwise it will be harder for others to get to know your work.

Helpful people abound this month, so it's a good time to work closely with others, as you stand to benefit from the mutual exchange of ideas and the shared interaction. Others will see your talents and skills as something worth admiring, and they'll be inclined to support you and make your name known, as well.

2nd month (March 6th - April 4th) 丁卯

A very favourable month for romance is in store for single men. You'll have to approach people that you don't normally, and make an effort to expand your social circle. The more willing you are to put yourself out there, the more likely you are to meet someone who meets expectations and ideals.

Your bout of auspicious wealth luck continues this month. Stay focused on your goals and ensure that you're not becoming too complacent. Review your goals every so often to ensure that you are on track, or if you need to make changes.

3rd month (April 5th - May 4th) 戊辰

There are benefits to working hard, and you will enjoy those benefits this month. However, there will be a proliferation of particularly competitive individuals at the workplace this month who are not above backstabbing to gain their own ends, so be especially mindful.

Avoid letting your career problems affect your personal relationships this month. Set your priorities straight, and learn to deal with the stress and pressure of your workload so as not to bring it home with you every day! Moderation's the key to success, so sprinkle a generous dosage of the former into your life this month – and always.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

4th month (May 5th - June 5th) 己巳

Watch your health, as problems with your blood pressure could become something serious. It will be best to pre-empt any worries by getting some thorough medical tests done and speaking to your physician if something untoward crops up.

There is bound to be some measure of stress involved this month, so prepare yourself for some added anxiety. You may have to manage several things at once as your plate will be quite full, so find ways to delegate your duties so as to not over-strain yourself.

5th month (June 6th - July 6th) 庚午

Face this month with courage and confidence, particularly at work. Be assertive about what you've done and contributed. Otherwise, your talents and capabilities will continue to remain unknown to those who matter.

It's generally a favourable month for you in terms of professional strides, so you will have to be ready to draw attention to yourself and your capabilities. Sometimes, it is necessary to step up to the podium and shine.

6th month (July 7th - August 6th) 辛未

A fraught month is in store for you where emotions and relationships are concerned. A sense of suspicion may threaten to drive a wedge between you and your partner in your relationship, so you must guard against that. Problems will only arise if you allow them to come between you, so make an effort to keep the chain of communication going. Strive to maintain peace and balance.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

7th month (August 7th - September 7th) 壬申

Much like the previous month, your emotions are close to the edge. A break from the routines of life might be in order. If possible or need be, see if you can travel southwards, so as to be able to get away from it all in order to recollect your thoughts. Don't ruminate over regrets or past mistakes or you can get caught up in a destructive cycle that will not in any way help you with your present life.

Injuries are likely this month, particularly while driving. Be careful of potential accidents while on the road. Don't be careless and guard against speeding. In general, erring on the side of caution will work to your safety and benefit in many ways this month.

8th month (September 8th - October 7th) 癸酉

It's a good month to get your tasks and projects done with others. Work on improving your interpersonal and communication skills, as this will help foster an environment conducive for sharing and collaborating. Teamwork will allow for new discoveries and fresh ideas that will benefit all.

Your wealth outlook is also particularly bright, especially if you were born during the spring or summer months. Therefore, grab the bull by the horns and strive to make some strides with your wealth attainment.

9th month (October 8th - November 6th) 甲戌

Things at work will seem to be a bit of a struggle and an uphill battle as you might sense that your boss is taking you for granted. However, it will do you well to exercise some patience and rational distance in pondering this matter, because you will be prone to fluctuating emotions due to stress and overwork. Re-align your approach, and subtly but firmly put in place some new boundaries.

Monthly Astrology Forecast for the Year

10th month (November 7th - December 6th) 乙亥

There will be lots to do this month, but a less than peaceful state of mind may make things difficult for you. This is because your emotions are in tumult and slowing down will only lead to procrastination or indolence. However, stick to your deadlines and keep an eye on your goals.

It's a good month, in some ways, as wealth and career luck smile upon you. This is especially the case if you work in the performing arts or the entertainment industry. As such, endeavour to get the best of your emotions in order to make the most of your favourable stars.

11th month (December 7th - January 5th 2015) 丙子

This is a strong month for wealth, and others will be more than happy to help you. Don't be afraid of reaching out to someone trustworthy for support and advice if need be. You don't have to shoulder heavy burdens and multiple responsibilities all on your own.

In fact, you stand to gain from the ideas and suggestions that others may have to offer you, so it will be best to swallow your pride if necessary, and ask for the advice and help you need. You will only stand to benefit from it.

12th month (January 6th - February 3rd 2015) 丁丑

You will have some problems with your health this month, particularly in terms of stomach issues. Be careful of what you eat and where you eat, and perhaps take it easy on sweets and salty food. Don't overindulge – you will find it harder than usual to recover from rich food and a careless diet.

In other news, your career is on the upward trajectory this month and some good news may await you at the workplace. Consider this your reward for work well done throughout the year, as there may be possibilities to see how you can proceed and expand your career reputation in the future.
